

Guide to Online Resources

You can access these resources through Clever, the PJHS Library Website or directly. However you get there, use them to find information and great books to read and enjoy!

Destiny Discover is our library catalog. Use it to find books (both print and eBooks), and digital audiobooks that can be downloaded for your listening pleasure. Log in to Destiny to check your library account, make “favorites” lists and access eBooks/audiobooks.

Databases

Gale in Context research databases bring together articles from books and periodicals, videos, images and primary sources. Our Gale database is the kind of reliable, authoritative information students need to use in research assignments.

From school, you shouldn't need a password to access this resource. If you're researching at home, the password is dragons. Sign in with Google to save your work.

GALILEO, Georgia's virtual library, is an online library portal to authoritative, trustworthy information that isn't available through free search engines or internet directories.

You don't need a password to access GALILEO when you're at school or if you get there through Clever when you're off-campus.

GALILEO's top resources for PJHS students include:

Britannica School: Choose Elementary, Middle or High School levels for a world atlas, research tips, articles, photos and videos on a wide range of topics.

SIRS Discoverer: A general reference resource with learning tools, articles and photos from magazines, newspapers and government documents.

Explora: A research portal where students can find news, biographies, books and magazines on many topics of interest for school projects or fun.

New Georgia Encyclopedia: This authoritative resource includes more than 2,300 articles and 6,600-plus images, as well as quick facts and internet resources on people, places, history and other Georgia topics.

Digital Library of Georgia: A Gateway to Georgia's history and culture found in primary sources, including digitized books, manuscripts, images, government documents, newspapers, maps, video and other resources.
